

WELL Health to Participate in the 22nd Annual Healthcare Summit

VANCOUVER, BC , Sept. 19, 2022 /CNW/ - WELL Health Technologies Corp. (TSX: WELL) (OTCQX: WHTCF) (the "Company" or "WELL"), a digital healthcare company focused on positively impacting health outcomes by leveraging technology to empower healthcare practitioners and their patients globally, is pleased to announce its participation in the 22nd Annual Healthcare Summit on September 22-23, 2022 in Vancouver, BC.

The Healthcare Summit brings together over 50 national and international subject matter experts and leaders in digital health technology, personalized medicine, health innovation, value-based healthcare, and genomics. Representing WELL at the summit will be Hamed Shahbazi, Founder and CEO, and Jeremy Mickolwin, VP of Clinic Operations.

Mr. Shahbazi will be delivering a keynote address to discuss improving Canada's health ecosystem by better supporting our care providers at 3:20PM on Thursday, September 22. Mr. Mickolwin will be participating on a panel to discuss the role of technology in improving the delivery of primary care in Canada at 10:45AM on Friday, September 23.

"Our healthcare ecosystem is still underpinned by care providers who are finding it increasingly difficult in today's challenging environment to operate businesses, implement technology solutions and provide care," said Mr. Shahbazi. "We will discuss solutions to these and other challenges, and the role multi-disciplinary, tech-enabled teams can play."
